

Recommendation by John Stott

(late Vicar of All Souls Langham Place London)

He says:

The late Dr Martyn Lloyd-Jones introduced me to the McCheyne calendar in the 1950's and I have used it ever since. To me its great value is that it begins with the four 'great beginnings' in Scripture - Genesis (birth of the universe), Ezra (the birth of the nation after Babylonian captivity), Matthew (the birth of Christ), and Acts (the birth of the body of Christ). Then we follow the unfolding of these four stories. Nothing has helped me more than this grasp of the grand themes of the Bible.

This reading plan has been published at various times by a variety of people since it was originally made available to McCheyne's congregation in about 1835. The most recent version, published by The Lausanne Movement in 2008, is now out of print and not available in Bookshops.

This version (Dec 29 2019) has been compiled by a member of St John's Highton & is free to all.

A plan to read all the Bible in one or two years

Devised by Rev Robert Murray McCheyne

Robert McCheyne (1813-1843) urged Christians to grow in faith by reading Scripture daily. He developed this system to help build a habit of reading in more than one part of the Bible each day. In this way its users would grow in understanding of God's great plan of salvation, stretching from Genesis to Revelation. It is used by countless Christians around the world.

Robert served as minister of St Peter's Kirk, Dundee, Scotland until his death at the age of 29. He had amazing preaching ministry in just those few short years.

This plan will take you through the NT and Psalms twice & the rest of the Bible once.

To do that in one year read all 4 passages each day or spread it over 2 years by reading two passages per day.
